It is that time of year again and preparations for the Malaysia Domestic Tourism Fair (MDTF) are well underway. The exciting and informational annual event will be held May 14th to 16th 2010, and is being organized by the National Tourism Council of Malaysia in order to help expand local business and create more opportunity for Malaysian tourism on the whole.

The goal for MDTF '10 is to become the #1 domestic fair involved within the tourism industry and ensure that awareness is created throughout the country and the world when it comes to how much Malaysia has to offer. This is an event that you will definitely not want to miss as major organizations, individuals, speakers, and networks will all gather in order to showcase the best that the nation has to offer. Cuti Cuti Malaysia will be playing a major role in the fair all weekend long which is sure to promote the fair on the whole.

Organizations from every aspect of Malaysian tourism will be taking part as products, heritage, culture, ecotourism, leisure, lifestyle, events, and tourist attractions will all be promoted and discussed. Whether you are involved in the industry itself, seeking out more information, or are just looking to be a part of something special, you need to make sure that you make the most of the Malaysian Domestic Tourism Fair 2010.

On top of all the promotions and events, there are a number of activities such as performances, dances, the Tourism Photo-Challenge contest, and even local promotions revolving around cuisine and presentations. With more than 200 booths taking part in MDTF '10, there will be no shortage of sights, sounds, entertainment, and information being shared and passed around at all times.

There really is no reason to miss the Malaysia Domestic Tourism Fair in 2010, not only due to all of the excitement and information but also in terms of the incredible value that will be found. All kinds of booths will be offering exclusive holiday packages, once in a life time bargains, and ideal travel options for anyone looking to make the most of Malaysia. Hotels, tourist organizations, airlines, tourism operators, service providers, and retailers will all be taking part and ensuring that MDTF 10 offers the most exciting deals and packages that you will ever come across.

On top of everything else, one of the main attractions for MDTF '10 will be the speakers sessions featuring an array of keynote speakers and opportunities for members of the public to interact, discuss, and participate within presentations. With an expected crowd of 25,000 it is easy to see why there is so much excitement surrounding this annual event.

Whether you are an exhibitor, a tourism employee, or just someone looking to get out and explore, be sure to reserve your spot and become a part of the Malaysian Domestic Tourism Fair 2010 located at the stunning Putra World Trade Centre in Kuala Lumpur.

Come help promote this stunning nation or show up and find out just how many opportunities and deals are abound.
