Bargains at domestic tourism fair

SENIOR citizens and students will find interesting holiday packages at the upcoming Malaysian Domestic Tourism Fair (MDTF) from July 3 to 5 at Putra World Trade Centre, Kuala Lumpur.

National Tourism Council Malaysia deputy president and MDTF organising chairman Datuk Shamsul Falak Abdul Kadir said that while the fair is targeted at all Malaysians, they hope to attract more senior citizens and students.

“These two groups like to travel but may face financial constraints, so this will be the best time to consider options as they will find affordable packages and promotions at the fair,” he said.

The fair will see 180 booths being taken up by exhibitors.

“So far, Tourism Malaysia has taken up 40 booths and we also have the support of State Tourism bodies, including Sabah and Langkawi. There will also be an hourly lucky draw for prizes of airline tickets, holiday packages and more,” said Shamsul.

About 30,000 people are expected to visit the three-day event, the first domestic travel fair of such scale held in the country. MDTF is supported by the Ministry of Tourism and Tourism Malaysia with the New Straits Times as its official media partner.
